Dear Mr. Flanagan:

Thank you for your letter of 10 December 1986 inviting the Central Intelligence Agency to nominate candidates for the 1987/88 fellowship program in international security studies sponsored by the Center for Science and International Affairs.

I have brought this program to the attention of the appropriate office directors. If we have a qualified candidate to nominate for the 1987/88 academic year, I will forward the application to you. This fellowship would offer an unique experience for one of our officers, and I appreciate your interest in having a CIA candidate.

Sincerely,

Director of Training and Education
